

At a SPECIAL COURT OF ASSISTANTS of the Hon. Artillery-Company, held on Emergency, at the Armory-House, on Saturday, the 25th Day of May, 1799:

COLONEL LE MESURIER in the Chair:

HIS MAJESTY having signified his royal Pleasure to review the different Volunteer Corps of the London District in Hyde-Park, on Tuesday, the 4th Day of June next, you are hereby strictly

ORDERED

To parade in the Artillery-Ground, at Six o'Clock in the Morning of that Day precisely, completely armed and accoutred, with white Pantaloon. — And, as previous Drills may be highly necessary, your Attendance is particularly desired on Wednesday and Friday next in the Artillery-Ground, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, in black Gaiters.

By Order of the Court.

William White, Sec.

The COURT OF ASSISTANTS, being anxious to have a full Muster of the Corps on the 4th of June, hereby give Notice, that they shall feel themselves bound to enforce the 15th Article of their Rules and Orders, as far as relates to Fine, Censure, or Expulsion, against every Member who may neglect to comply with the Orders issued on this Occasion.
